

Three questions

Q1

Imagine you are financially secure – enough money to take care of your needs for the rest of your life. How would you live? What would you do? How would you change your life?

Q2

Now imagine you visit your doctor and learn that you have 5-10 years to live. You won't feel sick, but you'll have no warning before you die. What will you do in those remaining years? How will you change your life?

Q3

Finally, imagine you only have 24 hours to live. What did you miss? Who did you not get to be? What did you not get to do?
